TRENT TELLS ABOUT ROAD-MEN'S MONEY

How Much Was Saved By Coming To

The Democratic meeting out near the Kafulani School last evening was well attended, and there was a large list of speakers to hold the attention of the crowd. A. V. Peters was the first man to address the audience, and he dwelt chiefly on the supposition that the Republican party made lots of promises but never kept them.

He said that there had been a meeting at Alapai and Kinau streets of Republicans the previous evening. and one speaker there who had been in the Government service for ten years, got up and promised the people good roads, good lights, and general improvements for the community, if the straight Republican ticket were elected. Mr. Peters said that they had been making this sort of promise for the past ten years, and andn't fuifilled them yet.

George Low, candidate for County lerk, made what was almost his first public appearance. He has been toucing the other Islands with Link Mc-Candless. His speech last night was short and to the point. R. H. Trent was the next speaker introduced by he chairman.

Trent stated that he had added Kamaalna" to his Hawailan name Sugar Cospe. Sugar Mill Co. 6. urer on any of the tickets. The felows, he said, had accused him of being a malihini, while, as a matter ware experienced in the handling of $80; 10 Walalua, $80; 5 Haw, C. & S. the funds of the County.

"When I was first elected," he C. & S said, "I was, besides H. T. Moore, the $20.50. only Democrat on the ticket, and the Republicans were determined that I should not pay off the road-workers, because they were afraid that the laboring men would learn how really good a Democrat was. The Republican leaders came to me and told me to give the money to the Road Supervisor to pay off the men, but I said no; that I didn't see why they shouldn't receive a warrant for their County employe. So they came to me and I gave them the exact sum of money that was coming to them. Hold on," they said, "you are giv them that they were getting exactly what was coming to them, some of the mould hardly believe it. They said that they didn't get so much when they were pald at the other But every man gets every dol ar he deserves from me.

Deacon Trent then told a Bible tory to illustrate his position, comparing the Republican candidate to Soliath and himself to the little shepnerd boy, David.

M. E. Silva was the next speaker, TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF end he was followed by Judge Edings, who made a short and convincing plea for the straight Democratic ticket. He said that the Alameda had brought news of the success of ning side.
